Bowser calls on colleague to resign

Washington, D.C. – Today, Councilmember Muriel Bowser issued the following statement with regard to news that her colleague, Harry Thomas, Jr. had been charged by the U.S. Attorney.

“With sadness for what this means for our City and the people of Ward 5, I call on Councilmember Harry Thomas, Jr. to resign. The Council must return its focus to the business of governing our City: creating jobs, accelerating education reform, and delivering high quality services to our residents.”
